

Cursillo Retreat Weekend

Friday September 27, 4 p.m. to

Sunday, September 29

Sylvan Lake Alberta

The weekend retreat is held at beautiful Camp Kannawin located on the north side of Sylvan Lake. This is a camping experience with comfortable, heated cabins; showers and washrooms are centrally located. Presbyterian Cursillo weekends are rooted in Christian doctrine and are not limited to members of the Presbyterian Church. Any adult Christian who is ready for a learning and growing experience is welcome to attend.

The cost of the weekend is $150. Some congregations are willing to sponsor those who wish to attend but are not able to pay the fee. Please contact an elder in your congregation if this is the case.

WHAT IS CURSILLO?

Cursillo is a Spanish word meaning a short course; in this case it means a short course in Christian living. Today, Cursillo retreats are held all around the globe and the movement is embraced by many churches including Catholic, United, Anglican, Lutheran and Presbyterian. In Canada, Cursillo is a program that is widely accepted and supported by the Presbyterian Church.

The Cursillo Retreat is a method of personal renewal within the church. Its purpose is to strengthen you in your walk with Christ.
