The Synod will reimburse accommodation costs for up to two nights of Thursday Friday and Saturday night upon presentation of a receipt. For those travelling more than 5 hours up to three night's accommodation will also be reimbursed by Synod upon presentation of a receipt.

You are responsible for booking your room. Individuals who are late making reservations will be responsible for the cost difference.

You also have the option of finding your own accommodation.

For dinner on Saturday we have arranged to join Mill Woods Presbyterian Church for their annual Turkey buffet. The cost for this meal is $9.00 which is not covered by the Synod but is well worth the money. There will be turkey, mashed potatoes and veggies plus, of course, delicious pies! In order for them to have enough food you need to indicate on your registration form that you plan on joining them. Tickets can be paid for on Saturday.

There is a workshop Saturday from 9-3:30 with coffee at 8:30.

The workshop is entitled “Kindness without Borders” Who is a refugee and how do we respond.

The leader is Rob Shropshire who is our coordinator for Refugee Sponsorship with the Presbyterian Church in Canada.

You are invited to join us at SPPC for Sunday worship at 10 am with a potluck lunch to follow. The speaker that morning will be Ross Lockhart from V.S.T.

PLEASE NOTE:

Registration and Hotel Booking deadline is September 29, 2017

The rate for the hotel is only guaranteed if you book by that time. In addition Sherwood Park needs numbers to plan food, so please book send in registration or regrets by then.

We look forward to seeing you at Synod!

If you are on the roll of a presbytery please fill out registration form whether you are coming or not!! There is a space for regrets.
